Mingled good and evil seem to sway the fortunes of men this day, according to astrology. While Neptune, Jupiter, Venus and Saturn are in henefic aspect. Neptune and Mars are adverse. Early in the morning commercial affairs have a fairly fortunate direction. All who push their business before sundown should prosper.

There is a sign held to encourage speculation, but while excitement over oil lands is indicated it will not lead to fortune for any but those who already have places in the Sun, the sters predict.

This should be a lucky day for beginning long journeys, especially wedding trips, on which the old will look with favor that leads to the bestowal of fortune.

Theaters continue under the most promising direction and great inflow of gold seems to be foreshadowed. There is a sign, however, which seems to indicate that high prices may presently be resented by the public, which will become more and more sensitive concerning the increased cost of luxuries and necessaries as the winter sets in. Mars and Neptune appear to foreshadow activity in both the army and next to the public and strikes will continue to shadow activity in both the army and nexy.

Riots and strikes will continue to present problems that become more and more grave, it is prophesied.

To E. V. S.—I maifed a personal letter concerning the address for persons who clear furs. Hope it may be useful.

To Margaret—I would advise the opening of an account with a local reliable firm. See the manager and tell him the amount of salary you make per week. Mention the amount you

To Margaret-I would advise the opening of an account with a local reliable firm. See the manager and tell him the amount of salary you make per week. Mention the amount you have on hand toward a simple coat, and tell him you would like to pay the balance within 20 days. Ask him to investigate you at your business address, and then he will extend you credit of so much for such and such a time. As for what kind of wrap to purchase, get something very plain and be sure it is warm. Blue is a good color, or brown or very dark red.
